

Digital Identity Risks, Remediation, and Compliance

Dr. Jason Davis,
Chief Information Officer - Duluth Campus

UMD

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH

Driven to Discover

Risk Vectors Prevention Remediation Compliance

What do they want?

What are some of the ways they will try to get it?

Phone / Text

Cramming

Social Engineering

IRS or Microsoft (fear)

Nigerian Prince (greed)

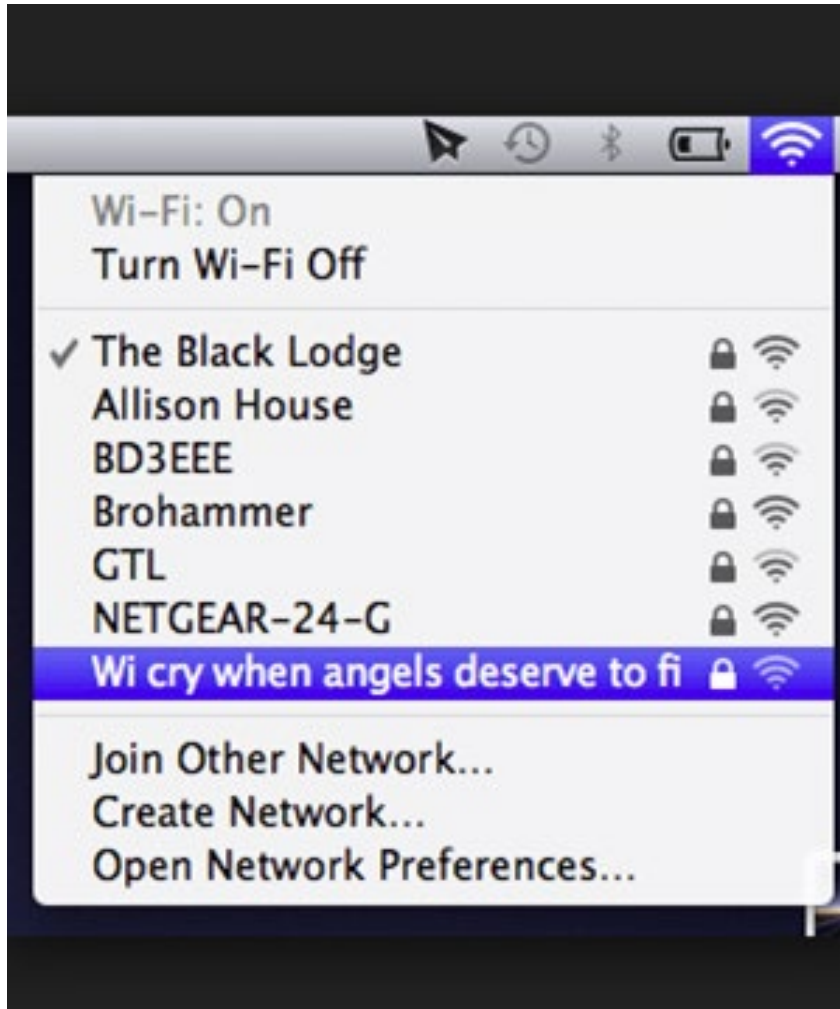

Customer Care (helpfulness)

Fake Charity (empathy)

Email

Phishing
Spear Phishing
Malware
Bad Password

Wireless Hub Spoof

Plain Text
Sniffing

Physical Access

Skimmers

Key Loggers

RFID Scan

Lost Items

Data Breach

Credit Card

SSN

Personal Data

Unauthorized Charges

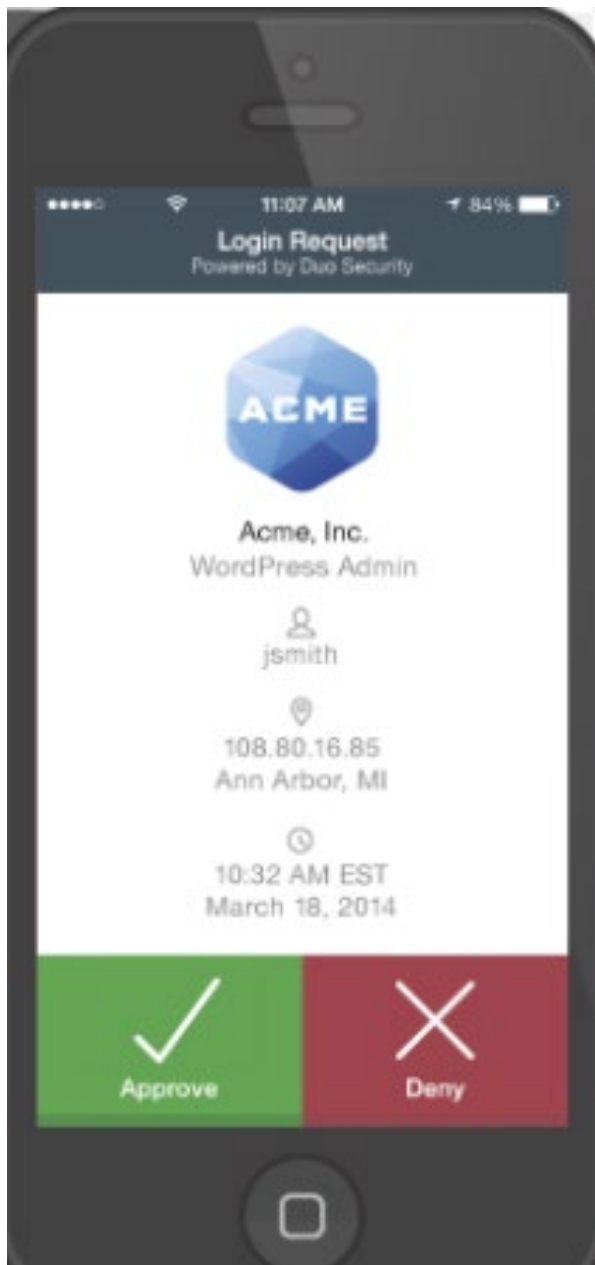

Malware

Via Email
Websites
Apps
Unpatched
software

How can you Prevent Digital Identity Theft?

Prevention

Awareness / Avoidance

Physical Precautions

Anti-Malware

Two-Factor

Locking Device

Encryption

Password Manager

Remote Management

Institutional Efforts

How can you recover from Digital Identity Theft?

Remediation

Password Changes
Financial Software

(monitoring your own transactions)

Device Wipe

Credit Freeze

Credit Monitoring

Down Sides to Security

Travel Issues
Inconvenience
Security Fatigue

Compliance

HIPAA, PCI
FERPA
GLBA

Audits
Risk Assessments
Gap Analysis

Malware, Viruses and Phishing

UMD > Information Technology Systems & Services > Security & Policies

Questions?

Security & Policies

Malware, Viruses & Phishing >

Recovering from the Google Doc phishing
scam

Policies & Procedures

ITSS and the Un
University devic

Software

- Anti-virus so
- Virtual Priva
- Virus/malwa
 - Windows
 - Malware!
 - Sophos A
 - SuperAnt
 - SpyBot - !

Contact us

itsshelp@d.umn.edu

(218) 726-8847

TechCenter Help Desk

<https://it.umn.edu/news/security-privacy>

<https://itss.d.umn.edu/security-policies/malware-virus-phishing>